Description

Remarks :
Hunter Pilot 27 for sale in Kent - Now £16,000
The 1996 Hunter Pilot 27 is a highly regarded British-built cruiser, renowned for her excellent sailing performance, shallow draft versatility, and practical cruising layout. Designed by David Thomas and produced by Hunter Boats, she offers the perfect balance between easy handling and capable offshore manners, making her equally suited to coastal cruising, estuary sailing, and inland waterways.
With her distinctive twin-bilge keel configuration, the Pilot 27 can take the ground upright and access shallow anchorages with ease — a major advantage for UK cruising. Her responsive helm and well-balanced sail plan inspire confidence, whether sailing short-handed or with family aboard.
On deck, the cockpit is deep and secure, providing comfortable seating and good visibility, while wide side decks allow safe movement forward. Below, the Hunter Pilot 27 surprises with a bright, airy interior, offering generous accommodation for her size, including up to five berths, a proper enclosed heads compartment, and a well-appointed galley — making her ideal for weekend escapes or longer coastal adventures.
Solidly constructed and thoughtfully designed throughout, this model has earned a strong reputation for reliability and comfort, and remains a popular choice among sailors seeking a compact cruiser that genuinely punches above her weight.
A versatile and confidence-inspiring yacht, the Hunter Pilot 27 represents an excellent opportunity to own a proven cruising design with outstanding practicality and timeless appeal.

Accommodation :
The 1996 Hunter Pilot 27 offers an impressively spacious and welcoming interior, cleverly designed to provide excellent comfort for extended cruising or relaxed weekends afloat.
Descending the companionway, you are greeted by a bright and inviting saloon finished in classic teak joinery, enhanced by generous natural light from deck hatches and opening portlights. The main saloon features two comfortable settees with a central folding table, creating a sociable dining area that easily converts into an additional double berth when required.
Forward is a superb V-berth cabin with infill, forming a large double sleeping area, complete with storage shelving and hanging space — a peaceful retreat for owners or guests.
The practical galley to starboard is well equipped with a two-burner gas hob, stainless steel sink with pressurised hot and cold water, coolbox and excellent stowage, making onboard catering a pleasure. Hot water is provided via a calorifer tank heated by the engine and a 240v immersion heater.

Opposite, the enclosed heads compartment provides a marine WC, and a washbasin, all thoughtfully arranged with good ventilation.
A generous aft quarter berth beneath the cockpit offers another comfortable double sleeping area, ideal for guests or children, while also providing valuable additional storage.
Overall, the Hunter Pilot 27 delivers exceptional accommodation for her size, comfortably sleeping up to five, with good headroom, abundant storage and a warm, airy ambience throughout. This is a yacht that genuinely punches above her weight, combining practical cruising features with a cosy, well-finished interior — perfect for couples or families seeking a capable, comfortable coastal cruiser.
