Description

Vindø 452 S – A Modern Classic Yacht

This beautiful Vindø 452 S is now offered for sale – an elegant and timeless quality yacht presented in exceptionally well-maintained condition throughout.

The yacht impresses both inside and out and generally reflects careful maintenance and considerate ownership. Here, the classic Vindø charm is combined with a bright, modern, and thoughtfully crafted interior, making her an attractive choice for the discerning sailor seeking both quality and comfort.

Please note that the hull number is unknown, and the current owner purchased the yacht as a 2009 model. It is possible that the yacht is based on a hull that remained in storage for some time before being fully fitted out in 2009 and subsequently launched for the first time in 2010.

As a result, the yacht presents in remarkably fine condition throughout.

Please contact Yachtbasen for further information or to arrange a viewing.
